

F. PRIVATE LETTERS

A Chronological List of all the Letters (or extracts from letters) by Ruskin contained in this Edition

The Bibliography of Books, etc., containing Letters from Ruskin, has been given in Vol. XXVII. pp. 617-739.

The present edition, however, not only includes all these, but gives, in various places, a very large number of letters not hitherto printed.

The following list enumerates all the letters in chronological order; and as the place of writing is added, the list will serve to some extent as a Ruskin Diary.

Rhyming Letters, mainly addressed in Ruskin's youth to his father, are not here included; for these, see the General Index, under "Ruskin, Verses" (39).

The Bibliographical reference, in the case of previously printed letters, will be found at the several places where the letters are printed.

"H. Hill," or "H. H.," means Herne Hill, and "D. Hill" Denmark Hill. "J. J. Ruskin" is, of course, Ruskin's father, and "M. Ruskin" his mother.
