Welcome to the all new Amiga Format Reader Ads AmigaGuide!
This is a new feature we're running to let all you out there sell anything you don't need anymore, or hopefully find something you've been wanting for ages. This service is completely free and will be featured on each AFCD from now on, so send in your letters now!

FOR SALE...

Here are the latest collection of bits of hardware and software which you out there want to try and sell, maybe to raise cash for that new piece of hardware, like the Phase5 PowerPC cards? (drool...) (clean up) Anyway, maybe you'll find something you want in this months list. Send in your details if you've anything to sell, and it'll appear here

Blizzard 1260 Accelerator - I ain't selling this!

Devpac 3 - This one's for real!
WANTED...

This is a list of things that people in Amigaland want from others in Amigaland. This month we've got a big selection of old software titles - New Zealand Story... etc. We've also got someone who wants some GVP RAM chips for their old ram board. Any offers?

Have a read through, maybe you can help someone from depression!

Logical Puzzle Game - This one's for real!
MISC...

In this section we've got a list of various clubs and events which are happening in the next few months. We've got an advert for a new BBS, details of a new Amiga show in Birmingham, and details of where you can get the latest software for your beloved Amiga. Read through and see if there's anything that interests you.

AMIGA User Group - Not really!
