Introduction

QuizMan is a windows program that allows you to make, edit and administer quizes. Quizs can be made with 256 color bitmaps attached to each question.(if your system suports 256 color). QuizMan was developed to assist both teachers and students in maintaining useful quiz files with excellent graphics.

Hardware and Software you will need

QuizMan requires an IBM or compatible 386 Personnal Computer with Microsoft Windows 3.1 or higher. Color monitor with VGA resolution or better is recommended. Program files need 1 megabyte of file space on a hard disk and more space as you create your own quiz files and bitmaps. Quizman requires a good deal of RAM, but I have had no trouble run it on a 2mb system in either Standard or Enhanced mode. For the programs to run properly all the files must be loaded into the same directory on our hard drive.

File Checklist

quizman.zip --->   PK-Zip achieve file (contains all the following

Installing and Running QuizMan

From the Mircosoft Program Manager, choose Run from the file menu and :

Use browse to locate the drive and directory that contain the QuizMan files type :

setup

Quizman Conventions

- Bitmaps must always be in the same directory as the Quiz file that calls them.

- Quiz files have the file extension .QMS

- Printouts on the printer are formatted in a 10 point font. If your printer doesn't   support this format out to a text file and print using Microsoft Write or   Notebook.

- QuizMan randomizes Answers and Options for each question every time it is used in a Quiz.

- QuizMan saves results of the latest quiz taken with Quiztaker in a file called RESULTS.TXT
