Instructions

The license and the template have been zipped using Norton Desktop 3.0. If you got this far, then you must already know how to unzip files. The template is designed for use in Microsoft Word for Windows version 6.0.

Install the template by copying it to the directory where you store your Word for Windows templates. For example, c:\winword\template. When you want to create a document, click on File, New, then choose the template Matrghts. The template will start, giving you some instructions. When you're done filling in the fields, the template will bring you right back to the first field. You now have the option to change your prior entry, and keep going around changing entries, or to save the document. Once you're done, print it out, have the client sign it, and presto! You have another client who'll probably turn on you as soon as he or she discovers you can't get him or her custody of the kids plus $10,000 per month lifetime maintenance.
