Products

The following list gives brief details about the products offered in the Arts & Letters range.

EXPRESS

This is the top-of-the-range graphics design product, complete with 10,000 items of clipart and 1,000 fonts. Many advanced features are included with a performance that far exceeds other well-known products. For a more in-depth look at the features, click on EXPRESS Features.

EXPRESS (network licence packs)

Network licence packs for EXPRESS are sets of 5 extra user licences which permit more than one concurrent network user to have access to EXPRESS. Including individual copies of the User Guide, they provide a cost-effective way to provide the facilities of EXPRESS to network users in a corporate or educational environment. Any number of licence packs may be purchased, each providing 5 extra user licences, depending on the size of network involved.

APOLLO 13: A Race Against Time

The latest product in the Arts & Letters product range is available as a 2 CD-ROM set. The first CD is a multimedia encyclopaedia of the people, places and events associated with the Apollo 13 mission. The CD-ROM includes a recreation of the mission from lift-off to splash-down using video, photographs, original artwork and 3-D animation. Apollo 13: A Race Against Time is also available on its own as a jewel-case CD-ROM only.

The second CD-ROM included in the double pack is SpaceAGE, described in the next section.

SpaceAGE

This product is the most complete and up-to-date multimedia encyclopaedia about space flight. It comes complete with a drawing program that includes over 1,000 clipart images and a special collection of images dealing with space. CD-ROM World magazine have declared it to be the "Number 1 Space CD; a stellar reference work." CD-ROM TODAY and CD-ROM magazine both rated it as "EXCELLENT".

DRAW

A less sophisticated drawing package than EXPRESS at around half the price. Nevertheless it includes some 3,000 clipart items and 300 fonts. It offers a budget way of gaining graphics experience, with a product described by CD-ROM Now magazine as a "red-hot Windows drawing package."

BOSSFONTS

This product comprises a copy of Arts & Letters Draw plus clipart, 1,000 fonts and a sophisticated font manager.

DINOSAURS

This product comprises a copy of Arts & Letters Draw plus an extensive dinosaur encyclopaedia. 1,000 general purpose and 400 dinosaur clipart images are included, together with 90 different fonts.

WARBIRDS

This product comprises a copy of Arts & Letters Draw plus an extensive military aircraft encyclopaedia. 1,000 general purpose and many military aircraft clipart images are included, together with 90 different fonts.

Express Features

Arts & Letters EXPRESS is the top-of-the line of Arts & Letters products. It includes over 10,000 Drag & Drop clip-art images organised in over 190 libraries. Among the 190 libraries are Aircraft, Cartoons, Computers, Fantasy, Flags, Holidays & Seasons, Landmarks/Historic Sites, Maps, Musical Instruments, Nature, People, Religion, Science Fiction, Signs, Space, Sports & Recreation, and Transportation. The Clip-Art Manager displays previews of each image and provides a keyword search feature.

Pushpins allow dialog boxes to be kept on-screen during editing sessions. Assign attributes by selecting from visual palettes of fills and lines styles.

The Color Filters feature allows you to adjust the colours of all objects in a file - or just a few - without breaking apart the objects: convert to grayscale, replace hue, add/remove(mix) paint are just a few of the controls.

Extrude and Warp/Perspective allow you to simulate two-point perspective and three-dimensional effects automatically. Hole-cutting allows backgrounds to show through objects. Autotrace automatically transforms bitmaps (scanned images) into editable objects.

Additional advanced features include masking and polymorphic tweening, A dynamically updated hint line displays options and identifies tools and commands. An on-line glossary and keyword search facility provide instant answers to any questions. Sophisticated editing tools, construction toolbox for precise drawing, line-to-curve conversion, and 4-colour separations make Arts & Letters EXPRESS the equal of any graphic arts task.
