Behind the scenes:

The nemesis icon began life as a "recluse" icon specific to Dr. Soong. However, midway through development we realized that it would be a lot more interesting to explore the relationship between Soong and his prodigal "son," and thus the nemesis icon was born. This icon is designed to accommodate a few other specific nemesis relationships in future expansion sets.

His Nemesis is is creator
 Dr. Soong

Picture taken from 'Descent'.

Behind the scenes:

This truly evil android is the most CUNNING personnel ever in this game, and is the only one with three different personnel types: CIVILIAN, ENGINEER and SECURITY. We thought it fitting that Lore make his appearance in this collection, since we're pretty sure Kivas Fajo would have an obsessive interest in acquiring this android (especially after he failed to keep Data). You may find it interesting that the restriction box and extra skills on this card caused its lore box to shrink and shrink, until we were tempted to have none at all... "no lore on Lore" we joked.
