Behind the scenes:
An early online Fajo announcement hinted at a "six-skilled Romulan," a reference to the sisters' combined Treachery, Leadership, Geology, Greed, Physics and Youth.But what a surprise that this so-called "Romulan" is really two Klingons! The Sisters of Duras seemed like the natural choice for our first dual-personnel card.

Behind the scenes:
The design team originally pondered the possibility that Romulans, as an offshoot of the Vulcan race, might have Mindmeld skill. Unfortunately, Star Trel has never established whether Romulans possess this ability.
However, the sotryline in "Gambit" provided an opportunity to make a Romulan-affiliation personnel that would naturally have this ability. In case you're wondering why a Federation-affiliation personnel "does not work with Federation-affiliation personnel," here's a hint:
throw a few shady Non-aligned personnel in your deck and you're ready to attemp Federation missions.
