

The image consists of a large, uniform grid of Chinese characters, specifically the character '中' (zhong), which means 'middle' or 'center'. This character is repeated thousands of times across the entire frame, creating a rhythmic and almost hypnotic visual effect. The characters are rendered in a simple black font against a white background.

This image shows a large-scale, repetitive pattern of Chinese characters. The characters '赚' (zhuàn) and '赚膀' (zhuàn bǎng) are arranged in a grid. The character '赚' appears in the upper portion of the grid, while '赚膀' appears in the lower portion. The characters are rendered in a simple black font against a white background.
