REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Definition of Shareware. . .

Shareware distribution gives users a chance to try software before buying it. If you try a shareware program and continue using it, you are expected to register. Individual programs differ on details -- some request registration while others require it, some specify a maximum trial period. With registration, you get anything from the simple right to continue using the software to an updated program with printed manual.

Copyright laws apply to both shareware and commercial software, and the copyright holder retains all rights, with a few specific exceptions as stated below. Shareware authors are accomplished programmers, just like commercial authors, and the programs are of comparable quality. (In both cases, there are good programs and bad ones!) The main difference is in the method of distribution. The author specifically grants the right to copy and distribute the software, either to all and sundry or to a specific group. For example, some authors require written permission before a commercial disk vendor may copy their shareware.

Shareware is a distribution method, not a type of software. You should find software that suits your needs and pocketbook, whether it's commercial or shareware. The shareware system makes fitting your needs easier, because you can try before you buy. And because the overhead is low, prices are low also. Shareware has the ultimate money-back guarantee -- if you don't use the product, you don't pay for it.

Freelance Search and Replace Disclaimer - Agreement. . .

Users of Freelance Search and Replace must accept this disclaimer of warranty:

Freelance Search and Replace is supplied as-is. The author disclaims all warranties, expressed or implied, including, without limitation, the warranties of merchantability and of fitness for any purpose. The author assumes no liability for damages, direct or consequential, which may result from the use of Freelance Search and Replace.

Individual Registration. . .

FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE is a copyrighted shareware program written by RAM Utilities Co. The evaluation version of FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE is offered at no charge to any potential user for evaluation. Feel free to share it with your friends, but please do not give it away altered or as part of another system. The essence of "user-supported" software is to provide personal computer users with quality software without high prices, and yet to provide incentive for programmers to continue to develop new products.

You are granted permission to try FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE for an evaluation period of 30 days. Use of this program after this 30 day evaluation period represents an obligation to purchase it. The registration purchase price is $29, plus $3 for shipping and handling of any future mailings within the US and Canada. For checks from other countries please add a $5 shipping and handling fee. NOTE: These amounts are in US Dollars. Equivalent payments, after currency exchange rates, should be made for all non-U.S. registrations. Checks must be made payable to: RAM UTILITIES.

Multi-use licenses for more than 30 copies may available at reduced fees. If you plan to use more than 30 copies of Freelance Search and Replace in one company, contact RAM Utilities on CompuServe (ID 72343,143) or write to RAM Utilities at:

RAM Utilities

o You may also register on-line if you are a CompuServe member. Type GO SWREG and use registration ID: 3581.

Shareware Distribution. . .

Distributors and BBS sysops recognized by the Association of Shareware Professionals (ASP) as adhering to its guidelines for shareware distributors may begin offering FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE in their catalogs/BBS services immediately. Other distributors whose only remuneration is a nominal fee for the disk itself, and whose literature makes it clear to their buyers that the program material must be separately purchased from the author, may also offer FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE immediately, but should inform RAM Utilities so that they can receive periodic updates. Distributors who wish to sell FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE packaged as or in a retail product must contact RAM UTILITIES, and are NOT authorized to distribute this version of FREELANCE SEARCH AND REPLACE without prior approval.
