

Chessboard

Tableaus build up or down circularly, in suit. Top cards are available for play on other tableaus or on foundations. Empty tableaus may be filled with any available card.

Foundations build up circularly, in suit. Any card may be played to the first empty foundation. After that, the remaining empty foundations must be filled with cards of the same rank.

Goal: Move all cards to the foundations.