$5 is suggested for once a year for the beautiful Mac DocMaker version and $2 for the text version for a year. Please help me pay for my access time! If you subscribe on AOL, I'll send it to you in a special e-mail each month so you need not fumble around looking for it. As soon as the Internet allows such access, I'll be adding that feature to my Internet subscribers as well.

The shareware fee is simply to make it worthwhile for me to continue writing and distributing this magazine.
