

When you are exploring you can disregard the timer. During fight, it becomes vital.
Literally.

If you don't move before the timer expires, your character stands still. But the monsters do move...