

TrenteSix Help

The aim of the game is simple: cover the board with pieces. To do this, you lay out the pieces by clicking on the squares. The first piece can be put wherever you like. After that, you have to move like the knight in chess. In other words, either one square to the side and then two squares up or down, or two squares up or down and then one square to the side...

Over to you..!

