

This Apple Script updates the file references of all records that reference files from a folder that has been moved to a different location. It searches for all records that may be involved and then checks for the folder names to match with the old folder.

©1995-97 Canto Software