Trouble Shooting Guide

Since this game uses continuous   sound effects in the background you'll need more than 4 megs of ram in your system. If you got 8 megs or more you're ok! But if you got only 4 megs then there is hope!

You'll need to create a new swap file in the size of 11264kb temp or perm. This will give full sound effects. For sound features, you can use either a Sound Card, or PC Speaker. But for the best sound effects the use of a Sound Card would be more recommended!

Follow the instructions in your Windows Manual about changing your Perm or Swap file size or go into your CONTROL PANEL and double click on HELP.
