

Zone popup

The Zone popup menu shows the current zone under test. The local zone is shown first when the program starts up, and is underlined in the Zone popup.

Use this popup to test a different zone. MacPing will immediately look for devices in that zone. The Network popup will be filled in with the network numbers of all the devices which respond.