

CINEMAX THEATRICAL FILMS

CINEMAX's feature-film lineup for January is topped by SHADOWLANDS, director Richard Attenborough's romantic drama, starring Anthony Hopkins and Debra Winger. Other top titles for the month include BODY SNATCHERS, starring Gabrielle Anwar, Meg Tilly and Forest Whitaker, WRESTLING ERNEST HEMINGWAY, featuring Robert Duvall, Richard Harris and Shirley MacLaine, and DEADFALL, with Nicolas Cage, Peter Fonda, Talia Shire and Charlie Sheen. January's "Wednesday Vanguard" selections include FARAWAY, SO CLOSE!, starring Otto Sander, Natassja Kinski and Willem Dafoe in director Wim Wenders' comic fantasy, THE ACCOMPANIST, a drama starring Romane Bohringer, Elena Safonova and Richard Bohringer, and THE EFFICIENCY EXPERT, starring Anthony Hopkins.

February's CINEMAX lineup features WHAT'S EATING GILBERT GRAPE, featuring Johnny Depp, Juliette Lewis and Leonardo DiCaprio, and SUGAR HILL, starring Wesley Snipes. In addition, CINEMAX marks Black History Month with the documentary COUNTDOWN TO FREEDOM: 10 DAYS THAT CHANGED SOUTH AFRICA and a collection of African films, including SAMBA TRAORE, YAABA and TILAI.

In March, CINEMAX presents director John Waters' comedy SERIAL MOM, starring Kathleen Turner and Sam Waterston, plus Nick Nolte in director James Brooks' I'LL DO ANYTHING, Tom Berenger in CHASERS, and Jeremy Piven in PCU.

Other top feature films slated for CINEMAX in 1995 include Joel and Ethan Coen's THE HUDSUCKER PROXY, starring Tim Robbins, Paul Newman and Jennifer Jason Leigh, and director Tony Chan's acclaimed comedy COMBINATION PLATTER.
