

The Package (continued)

The following is an example (again taken from the Stack) of how the finished resource might look.

The example is set at the Simple level - all the children have to do is select colours of their choice and, using the Paint Can Tool, pour the selected colours into the chosen area.

The tasks become more complex as the levels increase.