

The version of the October 1935 issue of SPICY DETECTIVE STORIES pictured here is the unstarred version. To demonstrate the confusion which has resulted from there being two different versions of spicy pulps in the mid-1930's, the November 1935 issue shown following this one is the starred version--which uses the cover for the October 1935 issue! The unstarred version of the November 1935 issue uses different cover art.
