

The cover to the October 1945 issue of SPEED DETECTIVE is by an artist identified only as Tregge (sort of like the artist formerly known as Prince). Whatever his full name, he does not appear to have been a prolific contributor to the spicy pulps, although he does a nice job with this cover featuring Roger Torrey's "Printer's Ink Runs Red."