The parties understand and agree that, because of the unique nature of the Confidential Information, the disclosing party will suffer immediate, irreparable harm in the event the receiving party fails to comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement; that monetary damages will be inadequate to compensate the disclosing party for such breach; and that the disclosing party shall have the right to enforce this Agreement by injunctive or other equitable remedies in addition to any available legal remedies.

8. Attorneys' Fees; Jurisdiction. In the event of any litigation between the parties, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and all costs of proceedings incurred in enforcing this Agreement. The parties agree that California is both the place of making and the place of performance of this Agreement and both parties consent to jurisdiction in the State of California. The parties expressly stipulate that all litigation under this Agreement shall be brought in the state courts of Santa Clara County, California or, for matters involving federal jurisdiction, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.

9. Term. This Agreement may be terminated by mutual agreement of the parties in writing or by either party upon ten (10) days' notice in writing to the other party. The provisions of the Agreement shall apply to all Confidential Information disclosed under this Agreement prior to termination and shall survive expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason for a period of five (5) years from the date thereof.
