

each end, one on the left and

Take the strip portion of the napkin ring and wrap it around

Slide the two end flaps into each other. This will create your closure.

With double-stick tape or a small amount of glue, stick the decorative top onto the closure flaps. (When done correctly, the decorative top will stand up a

This is what your napkin ring will look like when finished. To create a neat bundle, place cutlery inside the napkin before assembling.