

The Mustang Mach I Show Car

This show car was obviously based on the production model Mustangs. It was much lower, however, and sported a number of new features. The functional air scoops on the sides, "port-hole" side windows, racing style fuel filler caps and quadruple exhaust pipes were just a few.