Game Instructions:

Simply get all the pellets then find a way to drive, walk or fly to the next level. In your psychedelic journey various nasties (who are nasty because their parents didn't love them) will try to kill you. You can either accept this and die, or collect special pellets to shoot at them by pressing [SPACE BAR]. Pressing F8 during the game will open the game's menu, and by pressing F8 again you hide it for seamless gameplay. Every time a nasty hits you you lose a life, and if you run out of lives you are transported back to the previous level. In your quest you will gain points for various tasks. Every 1000 points you will get an extra life (up to 10). And if you can't beat a level don't worry, just open the menu, choose "Jump to Level" and input the number of the level as a password, and you're all set.
