VIEWING REQUIREMENT

You must have ADOBE READER (formerly Acrobat Reader) installed on your computer.

If you need to acquire Reader, it is available, free of charge, at www.adobe.com

Older versions of Reader may not be compatible with newer operating systems and could cause features to function poorly or not at all.

VIEWING INSTRUCTIONS

1) Choose the High-, Mid-, or Low-Resolution.pdf depending on your computer speed and monitor size, then double-click the appropriate icon.

2) After the first page opens, use the navigation controls at the bottom of the screen.
Or try these alternatives:

To Move Forward and Back
-- Use the arrow keys on the keyboard.
-- Or Left-Click to go forward one page and Right-Click to go back one page.
To Exit
-- ESC (escape) key.
-- CTRL (control) + L (Windows)
-- Command + L (Mac OS)

IF YOU HAVE TROUBLE

1) Shut down all other applications on your computer before attempting to open the pdf file.
2) Copy the pdf file from the CD-ROM to you computer's hard drive and use that copy to view.
3) If you have trouble with the HIGH-Resolution pdf, try the MID- or LOW-resolution versions.
4) Install a newer version of Adobe Reader.
