Problem   Part of MACLIB disk (see app#'s 3515 and 3516 for general info)
          Descriptive statistics that has you enter 24 x and y data points and it calculates 3, 6, and 12 period moving avgs. Other stats calced are: number of items, max value, min, range of values, mean, std deviation, variance, and linear regression.

Block Diagram

```
 _____     _____        _____
|                |   |                |      |                |
|    Data        |   |    scratch     |      |                |
|                |   |    pad         |      |                |
|    Inputs      |   |    calc area   |      |    MACLIB      |
|                |   |_____|      |                |
|                |                           |                |
|                |                           |                |
|_____|                           |                |
|                |                           |_____|
|  Statistical Sum. |
|_____|
|                |
|   Instructs.   |
|_____|
```

Tips
          Good examples of how to calculate the above statistics.
          F42..F51

→