To play a CD

Make sure the CD is in the CD-ROM drive, and then click

To stop playing your CD, click

.

To eject your CD from the drive, click

Tips

If you want to specify individual tracks to play, you can create a Play List.

Your CD continues to play even if you minimize CD Player.

button ,AL("A_CD_CREATE_LIST;A_CD_TRACK_TITLES") Related Topics

To pause and resume a CD to pause anything, click to resume playing, click

To change to a different track, to move to the next track, click for . To move forward or backward within a track, click

To play tracks in random order

▶ Tip   On the Options menu, click Random Order.
        If you have more than one CD-ROM drive, you can use this feature to randomize each CD.
button ,AL("a_cd_create_list") Related Topics

To switch to a different CD

Click the arrow next to the Artist box, and then click the CD you want to play.

▶ Note   You must have more than one CD-ROM drive installed to change to another CD.

To play multiple discs

On the Options menu, click Multidisc Play.

▶ Note   You must have a multidisc player to use this feature.

- Tips
  - You can specify which tracks should be played and in what order by modifying the Play List.
  - at the top of the dialog box and click the Artist button.

- 5 In the Track box, type the title of the track and then click Set Name.
- 4 In the box marked Tracks, and click the track whose name you want to store.

TO STORE THE NAMES OF YOUR CD

- 1 Make sure your CD is in the drive.
- On the Disc menu, click Edit Play List.

2. Specify the artist's name and the title of your CD.

To specify which tracks play and in which order

3. On the Available Tracks list, click the track you want to add as the first track in your Play List, and then click Add.

4. Make sure your CD is in the drive.

Tip Repeat step 4 for each track you want to add to the Play List.

- To clear the default Play List, click Clear All.
- To remove a track on the Play List, click the track, and then click Remove.
- If you click Reset, the Play List matches contents of the Available Tracks box.

button ,AL("A_CD_TRACK_TITLES") Related Topics

To customize CD Player

Click the View menu, and then click the settings you want.

To specify preferences, click the Options menu, and then click Preferences.

▶ Tips

For Help on an item, click at the top of the dialog box and click the item.

Tip

To disable AutoPlay, press the SHIFT key when inserting an audio CD.

1 Double-click the My Computer icon.

2 On the View menu, click Options, and then click the File Types tab.

3 Click the AudioCD type, and then click Edit.

4 In the Actions list, click Play, and then click Set Default.

5 ... repeat steps 4

you like, but a few that you don't. Your Play List can specify that only the songs you like are played.
A Play List specifies which tracks of a CD to play and in which order. A Play List is useful if there are several songs on a CD that list.

Click Help Topics to return to the list of topics.

If you have more than one CD-ROM drive, you can change drives by clicking the down arrow and then clicking the drive from the Shows which drive is currently selected.

Provides a space for you to type the name of the artist whose CD is currently in the CD-ROM drive.

Provides a space for you to type the title of the CD currently in the CD-ROM drive.

move the tracks by using the buttons in the dialog box or by dragging them.
To play tracks in a different order, click Clear All, and then move tracks from the Available Tracks box to the Play List. You can Shows the order in which tracks will be played. To remove a track from the Play List, click it, and then click Remove.

Adds the selected track to the Play List.

Removes the selected track from the Play List.

Removes all tracks from the Play List. You can then add tracks in the order you want them to play.

Returns the Play List to the original track order on the CD. The Play List will be the same as the Available Tracks list.

move them to the Play List.
Lists the tracks on the CD currently in the CD-ROM drive. To change the order in which tracks play, select tracks from this list and Available Tracks box and the Play List.

Provides a space for you to type the name of the track. After you type the name and click Set Name, this track appears in the Stores the title you typed in the Tracks box. The title will appear in the Available Tracks box and the Play List.

Specifies that the current CD stops playing when you close CD Player.

Saves any changes you made to CD Player when you close it.

Displays a short description of a toolbar button when you hold your mouse cursor over the button.

Specifies which font size you want to use to display the time-tracking information in the CD Player window.

Specifies the amount of time you want between tracks.