Description: A 2 player 'deathmatch' map. Players start on opposite sides of the map with a moderate gold mine of 100 000 gold and adequate forests in each corner of the map. The central portion of the map is accessed from top or bottom by a narrow bridge. In the center is 3 more gold mines that are guarded by computer players. Each player can field an army with their original mine and then must claim and battle for the 3 mines in the middle.
