

NDPS OVERVIEW

All processes in the large box are running on a NetWare 4.1 server. The server, client workstation, and NDPS printer are attached to the network. The client can send a print job directly to any virtual printer on the server or to an NDPS-aware printer. Any of the virtual printers, except for the embedded printer, can be attached to multiple physical printers.