HP DOES DMI

Management Applications

Get   Set

Management Interface

Windows Service Layer

Component Interface

Get   Set

| Standard PC features with extended HP PC features |
| --- |

MIF database

Set

Get

HP Vectra PC VE, VL, N, M, XM, and XU series

HP's latest implementation of the DMTF DMI includes extended features that allow network administrators to use management applications to "get and set" new information and parameters, including enabling or disabling a floppy drive, enabling or disabling serial and parallel ports, locking buttons and PCs, performing power management, and using an MIF browser to print out information.