

HOW THE SECUREACCESS SYSTEM WORKS

With the SecureAccess system, data being sent from a mobile PC is first automatically encrypted by SecureTraveler software. When the data is received at the user's corporate site by a dedicated server running SecureGate software, the data is decrypted and passed to the communications server and network.