

Just Push Play: Video Playback Moves Onto the PC

Technology	Features	Hardware requirements
MPEG	Full-screen, 30-frame-per-second video playback at 352 by 240 resolution	MPEG decoder chip or add-in board (on Pentiums, MPEG playback software)
Indeo	Video playback at 15 fps and 320 by 240 resolution. Version 4.0, due this summer, will offer full-screen, 30-fps playback on 90-MHz and faster Pentiums	486 PC recommended. Software-only video playback
Cinepak	Video playback at 15 fps and 320 by 240 resolution	486 PC recommended. Software-only video playback
TrueMotion-S	Video playback at 30 fps and 320 by 240 resolution on Pentium-class PCs	Pentium or RISC processor such as the PowerPC