

Irish

3.14
159
265
358
979
3238
46264
3383
279

Seo i</> -- deis
a rinne saineolai</>
o</>n nGre</>ig du</>inn
don obair ac<.>rannac<.>.
Arcaime</>id iolda</>na arde</>irime,
cru</> na bua fi</>ora</>rsa,
fear de</>anta an re</>itig<.> g<.>lic.
Fiu</> ma</>s anabarrac<.> mo</>r,
is re</>iteac<.> fi</>org<.>asta.

by Marion Gunn

Comment:

</> : represent an acute accent over preceding vowel

<.> : represent a dot over the preceding consonant.

Translation:

Here it is -- a facility
computed for us by a Greek scientist to do complicated work.
Brilliant, multi-talented Archimedes,
of truly ancient and victorious lineage,
is the man who devised this cool formula.
Even though it is very large, it is still a really neat computation!

by Marion Gunn

From: Michael Brady, Marion Gunn