

Cafe Doors

Swinging cafe doors are a charming choice to separate kitchens and eating areas. The doors can be pushed open easily from either direction - a feature appreciated by anyone bearing a pile of heavy dishes. Gravity-pivot hinges cause the weight of the doors to close themselves.

Cafe doors are easy to install in existing doorways. Set the bottom of the doors 12"-24" above the floor.