

The duty which is to day laid upon me of introducing, among the elements of education hitherto afforded by one of the great universities of ~~Europe~~ another one not only new, but such as to ~~modify~~ ^{modify} ~~its results~~ ^{its results} ~~for~~ involve in its possible results some modification of all the ~~other~~ ^{rest}, is as you will feel - w grace that no man could undertake ^{it} without some ~~appearance~~ ^{suspicion} of laying himself under some imputation of ~~insolence~~ ^{insolence}; and ~~insolence~~ and that no man could undertake it without without being in danger of having his hands unfastened by ^{an} universal dread ^{of his task} and ^{and} ~~mis~~ ^{mis} ~~trust~~ ^{trust} himself.

And for my own part, it has chanced to me of late to be so little acquainted either with pride or hope that I ^{can scarcely give enough} ~~cannot now~~ ^(renew) them - when the one is most ^{enough of the an} ~~useful~~ ^{for} strength and the other for ^{or of the other} ~~freight~~, unless by remembering that many noble persons have decided that this trust should be given me - and by so far treating their request that now - when I might justify in each - if each is well justified - of both.

(and finally) of that ^{high} ~~fine~~ temper that ^{most} ~~judicious~~ ^{high} ~~character~~ ^{high} ~~where~~ ^{high} ~~I~~ ^{high} ~~love~~ ^{high} ~~best~~ have decided that this trust should be given me; and by resting also on the ^{calmly} ~~surely~~ ^{calmly} ~~that~~ ^{calmly} ~~the~~ ^{calmly} ~~goodly~~ all whose roots we put to day in earth, will not fail of its height because the plants of it is ^{unduly} ~~well~~ have ^{sufficient} ~~enough~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ⁱⁿ ~~first~~ ⁱⁿ ~~shots~~ ⁱⁿ ~~of~~ ⁱⁿ ~~it~~ ⁱⁿ ~~showered~~ ⁱⁿ ~~by~~ ⁱⁿ ~~all~~ ⁱⁿ ~~judges~~
