

Brantwood,
Conistone, Westmorland.

21st June 1884

Dear Mr. Alessandri

The San Leno is here and is quite lovely, and wonderful, and it is a subject I wanted extremely though others are more important - of the great view of the market place seen like that from the foot of the round column is still safe - I want to unusually, only don't cold & cold sitting in the gateway to do it - Tell Randal, you and he may drive in the afternoon towards Lago di Garda. He send him ten pounds for extra expenses in my next letter to him

- a light two horse carriage will drive you in an hour to the top of the hill above the lake, and you'll see sunset.

