GT5 Prologue previews at Motor Show

Melbourne Motor Show has joined forces with Sony Computer Entertainment Australia (SCE Aust) to give visitors an advance taste of Gran Turismo™5 Prologue exclusive to PLAYSTATION®3.

The new game will be previewed at the Motor Show three weeks before its official launch.

Show patrons will have a chance to win a PlayStation prize package worth $4,900.

The Complete Home Experience prize will include a Sony BRAVIA 40" LCD television, a 40GB

PLAYSTATION 3 console, a Logitech G25 racing wheel and the GT5 Prologue game.

GT5 Prologue features more than 60 stunning cars – several of which will be displayed in the metal at the Motor Show – and five race tracks including the Eiger Nordwand, London City Track and Suzuka.

Motor Show patrons will get to preview the stunningly lifelike Gran

All-new driving physics deliver the most lifelike driving experience ever, and a Quick Tune facility allows drivers to adjust power, tyres and suspension.

For the first time, gamers will be able to race online on the PLAYSTATION®Network, with up to 16 players going head-to-head on some of the world's best racetracks.

Also new is GT TV, an online channel packed with great motoring content.

Since the inception of the Gran Turismo franchise, famed creator Kazunori Yamauchi and Polyphony Digital Inc. in Japan have revolutionised the racing category as we know it today.

Melbourne International Motor Show is organised and promoted by the Victorian Automobile Chamber of Commerce through its dealer division the Australian Automobile Dealers Association (Vic).
