JOHN MORRISSEY (Executive Producer) recently produced American History X, a searing drama about racism and redemption in the American family. It won star Edward Norton a 1998 Academy Award nomination for Best Actor. He also produced the joyous hit film Kingdom Come starring Whoopi Goldberg, LL Cool J, Jada Pinkett and Vivica A. Fox. John is currently producing Behind the Sun starring Billy Bob Thornton, Patricia Arquette, William Devane, and Sela Ward.

Morrissey began producing in 1990 with low-budget films like the satirical comedy 9 ½ Ninjas, the thriller Deep Down starring George Segal, and Sensation, an HBO Original Film starring Eric Roberts. He went on to produce The Tie That Binds starring Keith Carradine and Daryl Hannah. He executive produced Dr. Jekyll & Ms. Hyde with Sean Young and Tim Daly, and then joined Rastar Productions, where he worked alongside renowned producer Lawrence Turman and with whom he formed The Turman-Morrissey Company. John produced their first film, the popular comedy Booby Call starring Jamie Foxx and Vivica A. Fox, and followed that with American History X. Larry and John recently executive produced Turman-Morrissey's first telefilm, Miracle on the Mountain starring Patty Duke and William Devane.
