COMPILED DOORS -----

All doors in this archive are compiled using the RexxPlus Arexx Compiler.

To get the doors to work on you /X system, you must run RPStart and have the libraries included in the archive copied to your LIBS:
It is advisable to put RPStart in you User-Startup so you won't forget it

If you would like a copy of the uncompiled sources of the doors included in this archive, send 1500 BEF (50 USD) to the author of the doors.
Cash money (no coins) or EuroCheque in BEF only please.

This can be a large amount of money, but if you see what money I spend in my doors (time, phonecalls) and if you really want the sources to study them, this isn't too much I think...

The adress where you can send the money to can be found under

postcardware button...

Note :

Compiled doors do not work on all systems (blame the /X RexxPort for this) but the advantage for me is much greater.

I decided to do this compilation of my doors because I noticed that more and more people started using pieces of my doors, or sometimes just renaming the door and then releasing it under their own name/group.

If you want you can buy the sources as staded above.

FRaNKy.

1.5 what

WHAT IS IT ?

BirthDay gives the user a 'gift' on his/her bithday. When the user is not in the Birthday file, it will ask the user to give in his birthday.

When the user is in this Birthday file, the door will no longer show any text output untill the birthday and then be silent again for another year.

On his/her birthday the user will receive the nr of Kb stated in the config file

. Ofcourse the user will only receive these once, so if the user calls back 15 mins later he won't get anymore upload credits.

1.6 inst

INSTALLATION

Put the files Birthday.#? in Doors:PTL/Birthday/ to get everything working.
The icon Birth.Info (rename it to whatever what you like) has to be placed in BBS:Commands/BBSCmd/.

The add the door to your Logon-sequence by adding '~CC_BIRTH' to the file
'NodeX/bull.txt' (where X is the node number)

CONFIGURATION

The file Doors:PTL/Birthday/Birthday.Cfg has to be edited like this :

Line 1 : Number of Kb given for birthday

Line 2 : User that does not get any birthday gift
 Line 3 : User that does not get any birthday gift
 Line 4 : ...

Example :

--- cut --- 500
Lamer
UltraLamer
--- cut ---

All users except for Lamer and Ultralamer will now receive 500 Kb upload credits on their birthday.

If you DO NOT want any user to receive any credits the file Doors:PTL/Birthday/Birthday.Cfg has to be edited like this Line 1 : Number of Kb given for birthday (DO NOT FORGET THIS ONE !)

 Line 2 : EALL

Example :

```
--- cut --- 0
EALL
--- cut ---

THE STORY OFF

TFX gave me a script of a CNet-Birthday door and asked me to make it for Amix... I didn't felt much for doing it, but I started it anyway... About 3 days later a first Beta release was ready and I upped it to Fortress.

A day later Necrite said he didn't wanted the door to show up if it wasn't the users birthday.. I didn't wanted to do this so I started up a vote (I lost 4 to 0 AAAARGH) and now the door doesn't show up anymore...

I putted the door up for a big Test on Killer Dwarfs' BBS and there I noticed that users ALWAYS entered their birthdays the wrong way so I added some text to make it more clear but it didn't helped so I added a checker if they entered it correctly. And even now some stupid people manage to enter their birthday's in the wrong way but I don't care anymore. It is clear enough HOW they have to enter their birthday and if they don't want to receive any upload creds an their birthday, that's their problem.
