

Select Drive

Please select the drive you would like to search for your email files. If you know the location of the file(s), you may select then directly using the explorer view button.

Once your drive selection is made, please click the “Scan” button to begin your search.

Note: Outlook email files use *.pst extensions.