

This Program is FREE. It is based on the game Daleks, or Robots, available on just about every computer.
Mine's just the same old stuff, with cooler graphics.

Also, check out MacMatch 1.0, the concentration game with an about dialog just like this one! It's really cool. Please check it out. It's really kinda fun.

If I get sued for some reason over this program, then it just goes to prove that lawyers really are blood suckers.
