

Wiggle Corners

This filter lets you randomly reposition only the anchor points of a selected shape. It's good for adding roughness to a curve without entirely destroying the character of the shape.

The amount slider lets you vary the randomness from -100% to 100%. At 100%, a point may be moved a random amount that can be as much as 100% of the maximum dimension of the shape's bounding box.