This is a WordPerfect 4.2 document to show you the use of style tags.
By setting the option 'Translate Style Tags' one can see the reaction on style tags.
@Head1 = This paragraph is connect with stylesheet 'Head1' by use of the command "@Head = ".
This is the start of a new paragraph. Since there was no command for a style sheet, this paragraph is connected with style sheet "normal".
It is possible to alter the settings of style sheets. This can be done by the command "@name @ commands".
@Red @ <C2rF"Times"P24T20H200>
@Blue @ <C4cF"Times"IP24T20H130>
@Red = This heading is red
The heading of above got the following settings: color red, font Times, size 24 points, tracking 20 and horizontal scaling 200 %.
@Blue = This heading is blue
The following style tags directly control the style of the text.
<D><<D>   Normal
<B><<B>   Bold
<I><<I>   Italics
<U><<U>   Underline
<W><<W>   Word underline
<X><<X>   Strike thru
<o><<o>   Outline
<s><<s>   Shadow
<A><<A>   All Caps
<S><<S>   Small Caps
<^><<^>   Superieur
<v><<v>   Inferieur
In this sentence two ways of choosing the font 'Palatino' are shown, <F21>this Palatino is choosen by selecting font number 21<D> (This text is normal again), <F"Palatino">this Palatino is choosing by using the name "Palatino".<D>
The <P24>size of a font can be altered in steps of 0,25 point from 2 up to 500 points, <P18.75>18,75<D>.
It is also possible te select colors by use of codes: <C0>White, <C1>Black, <C2>Red, <C3>Green, <C4>Blue, <C5>Cyan, <C6>Magenta, <C7>Yellow, <C255>Normal.

For a complete description of style tags, please consult your manual.