

Statement of Policy

No information about any registered user of Version Master™ will ever be shared with a third party unless you specifically request it.

We collect the registration information for two reasons:

1. It allows us to send you email whenever the version of some software changes. This is a major feature of Version Master™.
2. It helps Version Central, Inc. and our advertisers understand the demographic profile of our registered users. This is essential to keeping the service free.