1.3 Welcome

Welcome to the Oliver Tacke & Heinz Andreolla-Icons

Hello, guys!

Here we are with a collection of icons.
This time our icons come along in the "GlowIcons" style because

Have fun

See you in Cologne,

Oliver Tacke & Heinz Andreolla

in general

These small pictures may not be published as long as there is no OS3.5 available

All parts of this collection and the documentation must stay together. Publishing only excerpts is not allowed.

We are not responsible for any damage or misuse of any kind. But certainly this archive is not meant for use in OS1.3. (We just wanted to tell you...)

If you really like this collection we'd like you to tell others. We'd like to get feedback.

The design of the icons should remind you of the "GlowIcon" style in order to create a uniform look of the Workbench.
