Shareware

The Reader application is Shareware. See the program Verbs & Nouns for the details.

Shareware Distribution

Language Toolkit Reader can be freely distributed over the computer networks, BBS-es, CD-ROMs etc. provided that the program is not altered in any way. You can also freely create and distribute Books created with the Writer application but be aware that the final user has to register (and pay $10) the Language Toolkit Reader program (i.e. Verbs & Nouns application). You CANNOT distribute the registration code for the Language Toolkit Reader program itself.
