

Add Alias to Startup Items Folder - This script creates aliases to items and places them in the "Startup Items" folder. The items can be specified by either selecting the items in the finder and then running the application (via the Apple menu) OR by dragging the file and dropping it onto this application.