

Product numbers A1809A and A1811A require System Support Options 0 (x) (alpha).

To order the correct System Support Option:

1. Select appropriate processor option.
2. Determine desired level of support.

3. Choose one of the System Support Options associated with that processor option.

Each 0 (x) (alpha) System Support Option description will specifically reference the processor option the support is being purchased for. (NOTE: The support deliverables are the same as those for OS0--OS6 and are referenced in the column heading.
