The problem with the correct results

The organisers even seemed to be not capable to unite a few groups in a small text; the official results only included some vague names of the designers. We hope we succeeded in finding out the correct results sometimes anyway ...

A CD-Rom with all released stuff was released after

The Party 5.

New viruses on The Party 5

Some versions of TP5-TSL.LHA and TP5-TRSI.LHA include the new Trojan Virus. JS!BS1&2.LHA includes somekind of a harddisk-formatter.

WhatIsIt? : No question about it: This IS the most CLASSIC and the most FAMOUS demo of all time. Of course it does not normally go into a Top-50 nowadays, but it is just too nostalgic to be left out. I remember how astonished I was when I watched this demo for the very first time. I guess that PHENOMENA is yet today the group that most people wants to see a "comeback" from. There have been a lot of rumours that they really will do a comeback but I doubt it myself. Whatever happens, PHENOMENA will always be among the true legends of the Amiga-scene and all scenes in general! (Jörgen Pettersson)

Producer : Sanity

Coder : Chaos, Mr.Pet

Graphician: Cthulhlu, Cougar

Sounder : Jester

Designer : Chaos

Size : 860K

System : AGA

Remark : updated version of Roots V1.0 (The Party 4)

Genre : Diskdemo

WhatIsIt? : This demo is probably the most perfectly put-together demo ever. To fit everything the show has to offer onto *1* disk is somekind of a miracle. Also, the main-theme by Jester is the best demotune I've ever heard. A really speedy song which really makes the demo *better*. The first version of this demo was released at THE PARTY4. Due to some harddrive crashes they had problems with making the demo complete. I guess that this final version would have done better in the democompetition at TheParty4. But why don't they use AGA graphics when the demo requires a 68020 anyway? (Jörgen Pettersson)

How2Handle: demo supports external diskdrives

Remark : two versions available: for MC68020 and MC68030

Genre : Diskdemo (2d)

WhatIsIt? : Demo was originally no. 1 at Doom`s Day Party 1994, but rules stated that the demo must work on a standard A1200 (demo supported MC68030, but worked on a A1200 MC68020 too!). So Rebels got only two bottles of wine instead of the winning price - seems to be that the party-organisers had less money than they had expected :) (Dire)

The second generation of Rebels proves they are worthy their name. One of the first really good

AGA-trackmos released. Includes a stunning end-part where the attender is given a free roller-coaster trip. Excellent endmusic but I don`t

like the main-theme at all. (Jörgen Pettersson)

WhatIsIt? : A great show in heavy coding produced by what seems like a one-man-army! Excellent song to make a demo to, it really has something to say even in these days.

Looks like a demo which wasn't made just for commercialism, that's nice to reckon!

How2Handle: automatic Exit

Genre : Filedemo

WhatIsIt? : The masters of intros finally decided to make a demo. The result is really impressive.

Some really nice routines taking advantage of fastmem in a truely nice way. Unfortuantely the demo has a sudden end which I presume was caused by the demo-deadline at Assembly'94?

Graphician: Jaco

Sounder : Alien

Size : 6033K (HD-version)

System : HD, AGA, 6Mb Ram

How2Handle: The first part is executable with 2Mb ChipMem too.

Genre : HD-Demo (4d)

WhatIsIt? : With this demo, Virtual Dreams introduced the graphical-only type of demo. The whole demo is based upon awesome raytraced animations. The animations are also very professional made.

Drool This

Producer : Parallax

Coder : Debug, Simply

Graphician: Mistral, Legend, Warthog

Sounder : Yolk, Legend

Size : 2350K (HD-version)

System : 4Mb FastMem, AGA

How2Handle: 4-disks version must be installed on HD; 6-disks version should be run without startup-sequence to qork properly; Exit

Genre : HD-Demo (6 disks)

WhatIsIt? : Another masterpiece released at the Assembly'94. This one is a really huge demo which really uses the strength of your machine. It features some nice routines like a doom-engine, voxel-landscape and a city-flyaround. It is stated that there is a A4000 version released but I can't really confirm that myself. Annoying is that the music ends abruptly a couple of times. (Jörgen Pettersson)

How2Handle: Exit

Remark : A4000-fix (V1.4, Size: 10K) was released on 25-Sep-94

Genre : HD-Demo (4 disks)

WhatIsIt? : It is the first of a new breed of demos - large, pretty and well put together. Impressive indeed. (Kenji Irie)

First version released at the Assembly'94, but as far as I can remember it wasn't shown in its full length. Maybe they didn't manage to get it all together in time. Anyway, this demo is really awesome with no doubt the most smashing first-part EVER. The soundeffects by Zoltar is totally awesome. All in all I think that this shows that those guys, who also gave us "Odyssey" a couple of years earlier, are among the alltime BEST demo-makers.

Producer : Rage

Coder : Goose, Derek

Graphician: Ozzie

Sounder : Fajser

Size : 2399K (HD-version)

System : AGA, HD-installable

Genre : Diskdemo (3d)

WhatIsIt? : One of the funniest demos ever made. Say what you want about Rage's political aspects but they sure know how to entertain. The two disk digitized animation is really amusing with morphing of a Volvo into a Starwars ship. And the parody on the "State Of The Art" demo is quite funny. If I do not rememeber wrong I think that only the anim-part of the demo were actually shown at the Assembly'94. Too bad as the "real" demo part have quite high quality. Doesn't support x-drives (In an old fashioned way.. ;-)) (Jörgen Pettersson)

WhatIsIt? : This demo is something which could be called a one-man-power-hit. Laxity shows his talents on all fields of demo designing. (Dire)

If you can give a demo the title "classic", this is definately a worthy contender to this title.

It is also a flash of the REAL past as most of the producers behind this demo had been in the *old* Kefrens. All in all this demo was the undiscussable number one when it was released. Of course it took the first place at TG '93. Nice introduction with somekind of "joke" towards

Melon Dezign (I guess..). (Jörgen Petttersson)

WhatIsIt? : Andromeda`s first major victory, disserving the first place at The Gathering `94. (from 42 #1)

Another masterpiece made by the norwegians in Andromeda. This one starts with a really nice roller-coaster routine. Matched with the music it makes you really impressed. All in all this is a "perfect" demo with many new and excellent routines. Deserved to win the compo at TG '94!

Coder : Dr. Skull

Graphician: Jaco, Alien, Kerberos

Sounder : Jogeir, Heatbeat

Size : 801K

System : AGA, HD-installable

How2Handle: Exit, WB

Genre : Filedemo

WhatIsIt? : This is a demo which just about can be put on one single DD Disk. It is a really well-executed production with excellent music by Heatbeat and Jogeir Liljedahl. Somekind of a breakthrough from the people behind the label Virtual Dreams.

How2Handle: demo supports external diskdrives

Genre : Diskdemo (2d)

WhatIsIt? : A follow-up to the popular State Of Art - demo.

I think that this is the most ENTERTAINING demo ever made. Many other coders didn't like this demo as they found it too easy to code. Still, there haven't been any similiar demos relased! (Or at least none of them have been even close to this one) One of few demos which you can show for people not usually interested in the world of computers. This also became the last demo from Lone Starr. (Jörgen Pettersson)

WhatIsIt? : This sort of demo is what the Amiga was made for: brilliant smooth graphics & impressive effects & sound to match. Amazing it all fits onto less than a disk. Even though released in 94, it's a demo any Amigan would be proud to have. Excellent even on a standard 1200.

(Kenji Irie)

Nexus 7 is great! (Zerox/Iris in DISC 10)

How2Handle: Exit, WB

Genre : HD-Demo (3d)

WhatIsIt? : Another amazing demonstration from the finnish group Virtual Dreams. This time they really try to aim high by putting in hundreds of different routines. Unfortunately it ends up with an average design. A very annoying fact is that the first music stops abruptly. This could of course have been forced by the demo-deadline at TheParty4.

Overall it is still an impressive demo with really good *coding*. (But, where are the credits??)

How2Handle: Exit, WB

Genre : Diskdemo (2d)

WhatIsIt? : One of the best coders ever once again proved he should be on top. This demo is a sequel to the winning demo at TheParty3 (Complex, Origin). I really like the way Gengis is handling vectors and texturemapped stuff. He seems to be a really mathematic kind of person!?! This demo finished number two on TheParty4 and I guess it was the DOOM-clone part that really set the voters on fire. Later on they have also released a DOOM type-of game called Fears. Go and buy it and do these fellows a favour! (Jörgen Pettersson)

Producer : The Silents

Coder : Crush, Ricky

Graphician: Dize

Genre : Diskdemo (2d)

WhatIsIt? : The second generation of Silents Denmark decided to bring back some of the lost Silents glory. This demo maybe isn't any success but although I think it proves that Silents still is to be counted on. Nice introduction-animation! Followups in the "kitchen" series promised. Has this "kitchen" stuff anything to do with Anarchys old demo named "In The Kitchen"? (Jörgen Pettersson)

WhatIsIt? : When I first watched this demo it was kind of a disappointment. I had expected Polka Brothers to smash all opponents into pieces at The Party 4. Although, this is of course not a bad demo. I just expected too much ... (Jörgen Pettersson)

WhatIsIt? : This demo has set the standard for forthcoming demo releases. Professionally presented, this demo achieves near perfection in all parts, and flows exquisitely between sections. The demo is presented almost entirely in 2x2 pixel mode, but do not let this fool you - Bumpmapped lightsourced objects look brilliant. The demo contains a lot of 3d object manipulations, and amazing tunnel sequences, and has a brilliant thumping and atmospheric soundtrack to go with it. (Kenji Irie)

WhatIsIt? : The biggest (8.6MB on harddrive) demo ever made for the A1200!? This is a awesome demo from a bunch of hungarians. Who would have thought that the hungarian Amiga-scene would reach such standard a couple of years ago. My favorite part is a kind of Super Stardust warplevel look-a-like. If you have the computerpower to run this demo, don't you dare to miss it! (Jörgen Pettersson)

How2Handle: You HAVE to use CURSOR KEYS (walk around) and `+` `#` (going up/down) to control the 2nd effect, the Textured-Voxel!

Genre : HD-Demo

WhatIsIt? : Although stated from the authors that this is only a beta-version, the demo is quite cool, showing really good voxels and other nice effects. Not a mega-hit, but without any doubt a big one.
