

Introduction to the PRODIGY(R) Service

Before you leave on your next fishing trip, don't forget to sign on to the PRODIGY Service included on this CD-ROM. Find out the latest news about the weather or make travel reservations. Talk with other anglers by sending and receiving e-mail or join an online chat. Check out the IntelliMedia section for new information about fly fishing events or locations. The PRODIGY Service can also connect you to the World Wide Web and the IntelliMedia home page (located at <http://www.com/intellimedia>). Our Web site is a 24-hour worldwide electronic catalog that showcases current and future IntelliMedia products and allows you to purchase products, check out sample screen shots and download sound files. You'll get an entire month* to try out your PRODIGY Service for free so get online today!

In addition to the minimum hardware requirements for "ESPN's Interactive Fly Fishing School," you'll need 4 MB available hard disk space and a modem connected to your computer and the phone line.

It's easy to get started:

1. From the Program Manager menu, select File.
2. From the File Menu, select Run.
3. Type d:\prodigy\install or e:\prodigy\install (depending on the letter which signifies your CD-ROM drive).
4. Click OK and follow the instructions provided on the screen. The installation program will search for your modem, install the PRODIGY software, create a PRODIGY program group and add icons for the PRODIGY Service, Autologon and Assist (a diagnostic utility) to the program group.
5. Double-click the PRODIGY Service icon.
6. Once you are online, type the JumpWord "Intellimedia" to access our area.

If you encounter any problems, contact Member Services at 800-PRODIGY (800-776-3449).
